January 2025

TO ALL AFFILIATES

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

The annual Wisconsin State AFL-CIO Community Services Conference will be held March 27 and 28 at the Madison Concourse Hotel and Governor's Club. The conference will open with a plenary/general session at 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, March 27. Registration, along with a continental breakfast, will be available that morning beginning at 8:00 a.m. Details regarding the registration fee, lodging, and related matters can be found on the reverse side of this letter. Below you will find a general overview of the conference. It is not meant to be all-inclusive but merely give a framework for the time we will be together. The scheduling of some sessions may be modified to accommodate guest speakers.

This conference really is a call to action - with the intent that the education and information provided will allow participants to become more involved in both the labor movement and also within their individual communities. The AFL-CIO Labor Engagement program is about "making the community a better place in which to live, work, raise a family, and retire". It is about mobilizing Union members - through local unions and central labor councils - to address workplace and social justice issues. By building strong partnerships with other community and faith organizations, more can be achieved.

Thursday's opening plenary session will include the presentation of the Ralph A. Jirikowic Award and the Wisconsin State AFL-CIO Project Award. [Nominations for both awards are due on Thursday, March 13. Application forms with additional information are included in this mailing. Please consider nominating a volunteer or a group of volunteers from your area!] There will be two general sessions, with a break for lunch and an afternoon break. Over lunch on Thursday, there will be a special meeting of Central Labor Council leaders with Kevin Gundlach, CLC Representative on the WI State AFL-CIO Board. [Menu service will be available.]

Over the two days, conference attendees will hear from the President and Secretary-Treasurer of the Wisconsin State AFL-CIO. Updates will be given on the upcoming spring election, organizing across the state, and other pertinent subjects. What are the strategies for 2025 and beyond? There is much work to be done, to make Wisconsin better for all working families, and this is an excellent opportunity to hear first-hand about plans for the upcoming year. And we will have sponsored hospitality Thursday evening, to allow for all to have the chance to meet other Union activists from across the state.

On Friday, we will have a general session in the morning, a buffet luncheon, and then another general session in the afternoon. At this time, we will again get legal updates from The Previant Law Firm on a number of areas including FMLA, NLRA updates, and much more. The general session will adjourn no later than 4:00 p.m. You can then return to your respective communities recharged and ready to go!

We are certain that you will find the conference educational and packed with useful information that you can take back to your local unions. Please submit your registration fee of $100.00 per attendee and completed registration form(s) by Thursday - March 20, 2025.

History of the Wisconsin State AFL-CIO Ralph A. Jirikowic Award

Annually, the Wisconsin State AFL-CIO seeks nominations from its affiliates for its prestigious community services award. The nominees are carefully screened, and only after a very deliberative process, one outstanding union volunteer emerges. In order to receive the highest award the Wisconsin AFL-CIO can offer for service to the community, the nominee must have demonstrated a continuous record of dedicated service in the workplace, the local union, and the community. These outstanding representatives of the labor movement are presented the award at the annual Community Services Conference by the President of the Wisconsin State AFL-CIO.

When it was established in 1984, this award was named the Wisconsin State AFL-CIO Community Services Award. In 1987, it was renamed the Wisconsin State AFL-CIO Ralph A. Jirikowic Award, in memory of a dedicated union leader who epitomized the very best the Wisconsin Labor Movement has to offer. Prior to retirement, Brother Jirikowic served as Vice President of the Milwaukee County Labor Council and was a member of UAW Local 9 (Brewery Workers) for 49 years. Brother Jirikowic left the Wisconsin labor movement with a legacy of caring and helping, and it is only fitting that the Wisconsin State AFL-CIO name its highest award for service to the community in honor of him.
